

RICE

Pakistan is amongst the TOP 10 producers of rice in the world. Pakistan's exports make up more than 8% of world's total rice trade (mainly to neighboring countries, the Middle East and Africa). It is an important crop in the agriculture economy of Pakistan. Rice is grown in fertile lands of Punjab and Sindh region where millions of farmers rely on rice cultivation as their major source of employment. Among the most famous varieties grown in Pakistan include the Basmati, known for its flavor and quality. Pakistan is a major producer of this variety around the globe.
